Nickel and Dimed

Can a middle-aged, middle-class woman survive, when she suddenly has to make beds all day in a hotel and live on $7 an hour? Maybe. But one $7-an-hour job won't pay the rent: she'll have to do back-to-back shifts, as a chambermaid and a waitress. Barbara Ehrenreich's best-seller about her odyssey is vivid and witty, yet always deeply sobering. Joan Holden's stage adaptation is a focused comic epic shadowed with tragedy. The play shows us the life a third of working Americans now lead, and makes us angry that anyone should have to live it.

Monday, November 23, 7pm.

Location: The Arts Center of the Capital Region
