summer theater at the rep

What happens when imagination is given free play and young writers and actors bravely venture beyond the horizon?

S.T.A.R. 2009 The QUAD Adventure

Join us on an amazing journey of exploration, discovery and creation. Come together with other Capital Region students ages 12-18 to form a unique company of creators and performers. Work with theater artists and professionals to develop new dramatic work which celebrates New York State's Quadricentennial. Perform on Capital Rep's stage as well as at other local venues.

As a S.T.A.R. 2009 company member you will:

- Travel back in history and forward in imagination
- Travel inward for inspiration, connections, creation
- Travel together in community and collaboration

S.T.A.R. 2009: The QUAD Adventure will:

- Put kids on stage in celebration of the QUAD
- Put kids together with established artists
- Use acting principles to support NYS Learning Standards for the Arts
- Focus on teaching the skills of collaboration, respect and responsibility

The NYS Quadricentennial Celebration marks three landmark passages in New York State's history: the 400th anniversary of Henry Hudson's exploration of the Hudson River aboard the Dutch ship Half Moon; Samuel de Champlain's expedition to Lake Champlain also 400 years ago; and Robert Fulton's maiden steamship journey up the Hudson in 1807.

"My son's confidence and level of participation increased dramatically, all due to the philosophy and education provided through S.T.A.R....Having researched many other theater programs in the area, I believe that the S.T.A.R. program is truly exceptional and provides opportunities in this area to explore theater like no other."
-S.T.A.R. Parent

"The best part of S.T.A.R. is that the best is always expected of us."
-S.T.A.R. Student

"My daughter has gained a new poise and confidence that carries her throughout the school year."
-S.T.A.R. Parent

"S.T.A.R. has taught me to listen to people and respect their ideas, but still give my own opinion....S.T.A.R. has helped me in school...I have a lot more confidence now."
-S.T.A.R. Student

"My child has learned that every member of the team is needed to make a performance work and that no one succeeds unless everyone succeeds."
-S.T.A.R. Parent
